

Send documents to even more practices electronically.

Reach more practices with your electronic documents through Relaying with a Docman Hub.

Trusts can now send even more letters to GP practices with Relaying.

Relaying allows customers who use Docman Hub to connect to another organisations Hub to send documents to more GP Practices.

The Greater Manchester Electronic Clinical Correspondence project has reported significant efficiencies and clinical benefits by relaying documents through Docman Hub. The project is set across 14 NHS providers, reaching over 500 GP practices and delivers over 5 million patient letters per annum.

“ We are now recognising many of the benefits attributed to putting Docman in practice such as improved patient safety, improved patient information, quality and cost savings. NHS Tayside is now processing over 150,000 documents a month within 8 document sources ranging from the Out of Hours Episodes, Immediate Discharge Letters and Lab Results. ”

Lesley McLay, Chief Operating Officer, NHS Tayside

“ The Trust utilised Docman very effectively and send out over 60,000 electronic letters in the past 12 months which has helped deliver improved patient care and given efficiency savings to both the Trust and local GP's. ”

Robert Clacher, Western Sussex Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

“ I love Docman because it gets clinical documents to the GPs quickly and securely. ”
